The Next Evolution in Legal Research –
Introducing WestlawNext® Canada

Dramatically improved searching, intelligent tools, and an intuitive design are the key differentiating factors that will provide legal professionals with greater efficiency, effectiveness and confidence in their legal research.

Research Tools that Deliver Efficiency
From the flexible all-in-one search box and customizable interface to the search filters and visual indicators, WestlawNext Canada brings you innovative research tools so you can research in a way that’s most natural and intuitive to you.

Canada’s Most Advanced Legal Search Engine
WestlawNext Canada lets you simultaneously search across different content types with a single query and delivers you the best results, faster. Results are ranked by relevance and sorted by content type, so you can find what you need in minutes, not hours.

New Ways to Organize and Share Research
You can copy and paste with standard citation and annotate documents by highlighting text and adding personal notes. You can also drag and drop documents and text snippets into project folders. Then folder sharing lets you tap into previous research across department and organizational boundaries like never before. Save time with instant access to shared documents from any computer. No more reinventing the wheel.

CONVENIENT HOME PAGE ACCESS TO EVERYTHING YOU NEED
What’s in InsolvencySource™

Using InsolvencySource for Insolvency Law Research

The InsolvencySource homepage provides quick and easy access to all of the exclusive research material available on the service, no matter how complex the issue. The weekly Houlden & Morawetz newsletter keeps practitioners up to date on all aspects of debtor-creditor law, not just insolvency law.

Quick links to the expert commentary that covers bankruptcy/insolvency law – in both English and French – as well as the P.P.S.A. and debtor-creditor law are available from the Table of Contents. For researching a general issue, there is the link to the Canadian Abridgment Digest. For those looking for guidance across provincial boundaries there is the P.P.S.A. Concordance. Additional precedents can be found for complicated bankruptcies and restructurings through the Insolvency Court Filings. And finally, there is a direct link to Cyberbahn where users can conduct their own property security searches for due diligence purposes.

DEEPER CONTENT

WestlawNext Canada goes behind the case law and the legislation, taking you deep into the law to reveal the subtleties and intricacies that will give you true insight into your case or issue.

Case Law

Comprehensive Case Law Collection with the most significant bankruptcy and insolvency law cases as reported in Carwell Law Reports
- Canadian Bankruptcy Reports and Personal Property Security Act Cases selected by leading experts.

Insolvency Court Documents Collection
